

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Mateusz Błachucki

Mateusz Błachucki is a chief expert in the Department of Merger Control at the Office of Competition and Consumer Protection (Poland). Mateusz is a case handler specializing in pharma, food and beverages sectors and is also responsible for international cooperation in merger cases. Previously he worked in the Competition Protection Department. He graduated from law at the University of Warsaw and holds an LL.M. degree (Hons). Mateusz is also a holder of a masters degree in economics from Warsaw School of Economics. Furthermore, Mateusz has an extensive academic experience during his employment as a lecturer at the University of Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński in Warsaw and Warsaw University. Currently, he holds a position of assistant at the Polish Academy of Sciences. He has written various articles in the field of antimonopoly law, state aids and administrative procedures.