

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Maria Coppola Tineo

Maria Coppola Tineo is counsel for international antitrust of the U.S. Federal Trade Commission's Office of International Affairs. Ms. Coppola is chair of the International Competition Network's Merger Notification and Procedures Subgroup, and coordinates the FTC's work in the ICN related to advocacy, mergers, and outreach. She is responsible for the FTC's bilateral cooperation and case coordination work in Latin America. In 2008, she was seconded to the U.K. Office of Fair Trading to work in their international division. Ms. Coppola previously served as staff attorney in the FTC's New York office, working on conduct and merger cases, as well as consumer protection matters.

Ms. Coppola obtained her law degree from Columbia Law School, where she was a Stone Scholar and an Olin Law and Economics fellow. She is an active member of the American Bar Association, and currently a Vice Chair of the ABA International Section's Committee on Antitrust. She is admitted to practice in the State of New York.