

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Professor Dr. Justus Haucap

- born in 1969 in Quakenbrück (Germany),
- full professor of economic policy at the University of Erlangen-Nuremberg, Germany,
- chairman of the German Monopolies Commission, an independent five person commission advising the German Government on antitrust and regulatory issues,
- member of the scientific advisory board of the Scientific Institute for Infrastructure Communications (WIK),
- member of the scientific advisory board of the RWI Essen,
- research professor at the German Institute for Economic Research (DIW) in Berlin,
- 1997-1999 senior analyst for the New Zealand Treasury, Wellington,
- Ph.D. in economics (1997) from the University of Saarland, Saarbrücken (Germany) after studying in Saarbrücken, Ann Arbor (Michigan) and Berkeley (California),
- Extensive publication record on various subjects relating to industrial economics, competition policy and market regulation.