

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Vladimir Kachalin

Vladimir Kachalin is advisor to the Chairman of the Federal Antimonopoly Service of Russia. He was one of the drafters of the Russian Laws “On protection of competition” and “On electric power production.” Before joining FAS Vladimir worked as advisor to the Russian Parliament on antitrust, economic and regional development issues and senior research associate in the Institute of World Economy and International Relations of the Russian Academy of Sciences. He is an author of numerous publications on economic and antitrust issues. Vladimir participated in several international projects as expert and team-leader.

Vladimir studied economics and got his higher education and further Ph.D. degree from Economic Faculty of the Moscow State University.