

Ronit Kan is Director General of the Israel Antitrust Authority since November 2005.

Ms. Kan started her civil service career at the Ministry for Industry Trade and Labor.

She was appointed head of the Foreign Trade Administration in 2001 after serving as chief of the European department and Commercial Attaché to the UK.

Ms. Kan holds degrees in Economics and Business Administration from the Hebrew University.