

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

HackHyun Kim

Mr. HackHyun KIM is the Director General of the Competition Policy Bureau in the Korea Fair Trade Commission. He's also the Chair of the Membership Working Group in the International Competition Network (ICN).

He graduated Seoul National University majoring in Law in 1980 and got an MBA from Washington State University in 1991.

Mr. Kim has been with the KFTC since 1997. Before the KFTC was established, he performed similar job at the Fair Trade Office in Economic Planning Board, which is a former body of the KFTC and also worked at Budget Office in the EPB. Also, during 1995-1997, he worked at Office of Financial Policy in the Ministry of Finance and Economy.

From Sep 1997, Mr. Kim started to work at the KFTC and he has been engaged in various positions – director of Monopoly Division, director of General Policy Division, director of Merger Division and as a General Counsel.

In 2006-2007, he served as a deputy secretary at the Office of Secretary to the President for Economic Policy.

As of Director General of Competition Policy Bureau since May 2008, he has been focusing on advancing the current Korean competition laws and regulations.