

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Dr. Shlomi Parizat

Dr. Shlomi Parizat serves as chief economist at the Israel Antitrust Authority since July 2008.

Dr. Parizat holds a Ph.D in Economics and an LL.B from Tel-Aviv University. Before joining the IAA, Dr. Parizat served as a private consultant to the National Economic Counsel at the office of the Prime Minister and to the ministries of Finance, Justice, Industry Trade and Labor and Construction and Housing. Dr. Parizat has worked extensively on antitrust policy, R&D and economic growth and on government regulation in major sectors of the Israeli economy.