

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Hannah Priest

Hannah Priest is head of the Markets Legal Advice Team within the General Counsel's Office at the Office of Fair Trading.

Her team provides legal advice on OFT's market studies and market investigation references to the Competition Commission, and on market studies policy.

Hannah was the team leader on the ICN market studies project.

Hannah joined the OFT as a competition legal adviser in 2002. She has worked on a wide range of market studies and legal and policy competition matters.

Prior to that she worked in private practice as a competition lawyer.